Budgeting

Some Words of Advice

Budgeting for your Wedding for a Solid Beginning Starting your Marriage Debt Free!

Setting a budget for your wedding can be daunting to say the least. Today's weddings can be so complex and the expenses can soar! The best gift a couple can give themselves is to start their new marriage debt free (or almost debt free)! So before you begin to buy and spend for your wedding sit down and make a plan.

Income - money you have available
vs
Expenses - money you will spend

Income

Start first by figuring out how much income you are going to have available to spend.

Don't include the amounts that "you think" you might receive as gifts. Talk to your parents - ask them how much they will contribute.

Don't depend on your credit card unless you can pay for the bill when it comes in.

Interest rates are extremely higher and will take longer to pay off. Consider a loan or line of credit that can be managed and paid off in a timely manner. If you're getting married a year from this point start a savings plan of your own and set aside a fix amount that you can afford.

Once you have the Income figure firmly in place, then you can move on to the Expenses side of the Planner. Keep in mind what you have available and tighten the purse strings when temptation strikes.

Expenses

There are a couple of expenses that are fixed that you usually don't have any control over

1 - marriage license, 2 - your clergy or officiate. The next important step is to decide where you will be holding your reception. The dinner and meal will take up a huge amount of your budget. (Cutting down the guest list will cut your expenses.)

Once you have set the when and where and the costs that are involved you can see how much available income you will have remaining.

Prioritize what's important to you then you can make adjustments elsewhere. There are many ways to "cut costs" in wedding planning.

Some Words of Advice

Things you might want to consider.....

Save the Date

As soon as you have your date set send out 'Save the Date' cards, notes, magnets or email. This information is very useful especially for those guests that are coming from great distances that have to pre-book travel arrangements, vacation time etc.

Accommodations

Pre-book a block of rooms for out of town guests.

Guest Itinerary

You will be very busy prior to your wedding and most likely after that entertaining guests will be very hard for you to do. So for guests that are traveling from far away distances plan a "tourist itinerary" or "things to do" while they are visiting.

Create a Wedding Website

Keep your guest's informed by creating your own website. There are many websites templates available online - or if you are not computer savvy contact SarniaWeddings.com and we'll create a personal page for you.

Post Wedding Day Brunch

An informal gathering after the wedding for family and close friends and/or guests that have travel from afar. A wonderful way to say farewell!

Assign Tasks

When selecting your wedding party – it would helpful to give them your expectations before they accept. Also on the day of the wedding be sure that everyone knows what tasks they are responsible for and where they should be.

Living Together

Start planning early as to where you are going to live. Do you plan on buying a house? Live in an apartment? Remember these when setting your budget.

Wedding Gown

Some Words of Advice

What shape are you?

Tips for Shopping for that perfect dress!

Wedding gowns come in many shapes to flatter every figure.

	A-Line A gentle flare from the underarms to the skirt hem. Anyone can wear it, but it is a smart choice for larger women or those wanting to hide a less-than-toned tummy.		A Princess style is a fitted top that flows into a flared skirt, this dress works for any formal or informal wedding. Just about anyone can wear this style. It hides imperfect middles and gives tall, thin women a bit of a curve.
	Slip Dress this lingerie style gown is perfect for an informal beach wedding and it travels well. A toned body is required.		Column Style is simple and sleek. This straight styles that is often strapless can be worn for a daytime or evening affair. A column makes a petite woman look taller, also it's a stunning choice for long and lean women.
	Mermaid or Hourglass style shows off a small waist while accentuating the bust and hips. This is for someone with that perfect body!		Ball Gown is great for a formal affair. It works well with pear-shaped or short waisted women, or anyone looking to keep her bottom half hidden.

Officiates

Traditional Church Weddings

The choice of a church is usually based on a religious belief of either the bride or groom, or both. Many couples usually choose to be married in the church they are currently attending or in the church either family may have attended for years.

Couples desiring a religious ceremony without a particular church in mind must try to find a church that will marry non-members or begin a relationship with a particular church or clergy member.

Officiates

Ceremony officiates range from those dedicated to a particular religion or church, to civil servants that will perform a ceremony strictly based on law without any religious content. For those wanting to include religion in a non-sectarian sense, ceremony officiates exist who can fulfill those needs. These reverends and other clergypersons will help couples by performing ceremonies that will include a general religious message without referencing any specific religion. Often these officiates will go to unique sites to perform a ceremony or may have connections with a particular church where they can also perform the ceremony if the couple desires.

Vows

Express your love in your own words. Your officiate will help you get started in preparing your own special message. For church weddings, the couple should discuss with the clergy member on any specific wording they may want to use in their vows.

Jewelry & Accessories

Some Words of Advice

Find wedding bands and rings that you will cherish forever because the rings are not only a fashion statement, but also a message of love and a promise that should be kept for a lifetime.

Some tips to for you and your bridesmaids when selecting your accessories: Leave it up to the Bridesmaids, let them choose their own style especially if they will all be wearing the same bridesmaid's dress (give them some guidelines as to what you're wearing and what type of accessory it is you like).

Organize an Accessory Party, enjoy a fun evening with your bridal party and either go out to a jewelry store or have a home party and have the girls select their own pieces that they could wear on the wedding day and after.

What to do with the engagement ring during the wedding?

- leave the engagement ring on your left hand, as soon as the ceremony is over slip the rings off and rearrange them
- or wear your engagement ring on your right hand

On your wedding day.....

If you're wearing gloves, check to see if the ring will fit over the glove. If not, an alternative would be to remove your gloves after the processional and hand both gloves and bouquet to your attendant.

Shoes – be sure to break in new shoes. It might be helpful to have another pair on standby.

Hair, Beauty & Health

Hair & Makeup

The first styling is often done 2 to 6 weeks before the wedding, depending on the style, amount of hair, cut, highlighting, etc. The final styling is done on the morning of the ceremony.

Beauty consultants remind brides of the importance of make-up on the wedding day: the bride is the center of attention, the day is long, and countless photographs are taken. Make-up helps the bride maintain her radiant good looks throughout it all.

Brides may bring in favorite make-up colors, fabric swatches, headpieces and any other items, which can help establish color choices. The consultant is trained to look at skin tone to advise on the best color and shades to enhance the bride's natural hue.

PS - Don't forget the guys!

Not surprisingly, today many men are taking advantage of salon services. Most male clientele will get their final haircut 1 to 2 weeks before the wedding day; they will return for a final shampoo and hair trim (beard and moustache included) 1 day before or the day of the wedding. A manicure for the laboring man is an easy way to clean and soften work-toughened hands, as many men are discovering.

The Honeymoon or Destination Wedding

Some Words of Advice

With the costs of hometown weddings continually soaring, wedding couples will be happy to know there are exquisite and affordable options available to them. The typical destination-wedding package, with an added week for a honeymoon, often costs less than a seated dinner at the local country club. Uniqueness is what a destination wedding offers.

Packing for your honeymoon or destination wedding will vary according to the destination and season.

Passports

Be sure to give yourself plenty of time if you are traveling outside of Canada. Information and online applications are available at www.passportcanada.gc.ca or you can pickup application forms at the Canada Post office in Sarnia located at 105 Christina St. S. Other service locations are available online.

Bridal Showers

Some Words of Advice

Three months before the wedding is a good time to start preparing for a shower. Six weeks before the wedding is the ideal time to have a wedding shower. Your Family/Friends will need about eight weeks to plan a formal shower. Unless it is a surprise shower your hostess will consult with you the date and time your shower will be held and you will provide the hostess with a guest list.

Guests

Bridal showers are intimate gatherings and guests are usually close friends and families of the bride and groom. Have the mothers of the bride and groom look over the guest list as well to be sure not to leave out anyone that may be important to them.

Theme Showers You may be asked or consulted as to what type of a Shower you would like. Types of showers include “open” shower where the guests bring a gift to their choosing or a “themed” showers such as a lingerie shower, or kitchen utensil shower etc. depending on what the couples needs are.

Home Party Retailers

Another consideration is to have a Home Party Retailer such as Pampered Chef or Tupperware plan your party for you. You can create your wish list prior to the party. It's an easy and fun way for your guest to purchase that needed gift for you!

Bridal Shower Games

It isn't always necessary to have games at your shower but it's a fun way to break the ice for those that don't know each other. If the guests know each other, they may enjoy just sitting back and catching up – if not, playing games will help people to interact and get the conversations started. You can help out by letting your hostess know how well the invitees know each other and whether games will be necessary. Keep the games simple and not too personal.

Wedding Shower Decorations/Favours

If your hostess is not a member of your wedding party – you may want to discuss with them your wedding colour scheme so that they may incorporate the scheme in their décor planning and creating the wedding shower favours.

Thank You Cards

During the shower make sure that someone writes down for you the name of the person and their gift. Be sure to send out your thank you cards as soon as possible after the shower!

One helpful tip is ask your hostess to have the guests fill out their “return envelope” giving you more time to write them a personal message on your thank you card. Remember to supply your hostess with your “thank you” envelopes.

Hostess Gifts

Purchase a special thank you gift to thank your hostess(s) for all the/their hard work they went to in preparing your Bridal Shower.

Attendants Gifts

Some Words of Advice

Your Wedding Attendants are some of your closest and dearest friends and family and you'll want to thank them with a gift of appreciation. There are many ideas to show your appreciation. Some of which are:

Brides Attendants

- Wedding day accessories
- Personated framed photo of wedding party
- Monogrammed Gifts (mirrors and lipstick cases, key chain, business card holder)
- Personalized gift baskets or bag for each attendant
- Charm bracelets
- Monogrammed bathrobe and slippers
- Gift certificates to a day spa
- Bridal luncheon after the honeymoon

Grooms Attendants

- Monogrammed, leather-bound flasks
- Personalized cuff links
- Monogrammed pocket watches
- Etched cigar cases
- Professional poker kits
- Engraved business card holders
- Engraved beer glass
- Engraved martini glasses with bar tools
- Thank you golf tournament, after the honeymoon

Wedding Favours

Some Words of Advice

Wedding Favours are the small gifts that the couple gives to their guests as a small token of appreciation. These tokens of appreciation can be given as your guests arrives or sometime throughout the night when the Bride and Groom presents each person with the token. The types of favours are endless – use your imagination to create that special touch to thank your guests for attending one of the most important days of you life.
